CORAM: A.M.KHANWILKAR, J.

FEBRUARY 20, 2006.

P.C.

1. Heard. The Courts below have found as of fact that the record would clearly establish the position that the plot in question was allotted to the Defendant and possession receipt for delivery of possession in his favour was also executed. It is not possible to overturn the concurrent finding so recorded by the Courts below.

2. In the circumstances, in my opinion, no substantial question of law would arise for consideration. Hence, dismissed.
